++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Outbreaks of rain then showers, these sometimes heavy and thundery.

Today:
Largely cloudy, especially this morning, but with some sunny spells developing. Outbreaks of rain across the Pennines will give way to showers across the region, these sometimes heavy and thundery, with a chance of hail. Breezy, especially along the coast. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Scattered showers will continue, these becoming slow moving while remaining heavy at times, with a chance of hail and thunder this evening. Some clear intervals will develop. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Sunday:
Becoming breezy with scattered showers, these sometimes heavy with a chance of hail and thunder, and probably most frequent across the Pennines. Some sunny spells, with temperatures close to normal. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday sunny spells and scattered heavy, perhaps thundery, showers. Tuesday scattered showers, but these lighter. Wednesday chance of rain arriving, most likely across the Pennines, becoming locally rather warm.
